L.S.Rajeshkumar under the Registered Sale Deed dated 12.03.2014. The petitioner has been in possession and enjoyment of the property from the date of purchase of the same.

3. The above said property was included in the Punjailakkapuram Detailed Development Plan No.7 approved during 2005. As per the Detailed Development Plan, the Scheme Park was proposed and property of the petitioner fall within the proposed Scheme Park in the Detailed Development Plan.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner by taking this Court to the averment found in the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition, submitted that though the Detailed Development Plan was approved as early as 2005, till date no acquisition proceedings have been initiated as provided under Section 37(2) of the Tamil Nadu Town and Country Planning Act, 1971 in respect of the above mentioned reserved land. 5. Mrs.S.Anitha, learned Special Government Pleader for the respondents is unable to show before this Court any notification issued by the respondents for acquisition of land in respect of formation of Scheme Park, till date.

6. Section 38 of the Tamil Nadu Town and Country Planning Act, 1971, reads as follows:-

“38. Release of land.- If within five years from the date of the publication of the Notice in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette under Section 26 or Section 27-

(a) no acquisition of land as provided in sub-section (2) of Section 37 is made in respect of any land reserved, allotted or designated for any purpose specified in a Regional Plan, Master Plan, [Detailed Development Plan, New Town Development Plan or a Land Pooling Area Development Scheme] covered by such notice; or

(b) such land is not acquired by agreement, such land shall be deemed to be released from such reservation, allotment or designation:

Provided that the Government may, by notification, extend the period for such time as they may think proper, but such extended period shall, in no case, exceed five years.]”

7. A reading of the above provision would make it clear that if no acquisition proceedings is initiated or the land is not acquired by agreement within five years from the date of approval of the Detailed Development Plan by operation of law, the land reserved/allotted or designated for specific purpose under Detailed Development Plan will get automatically released.

8. As per proviso to Section 38 of the Tamil Nadu Town and Country Planning Act, 1971, the Government has got power to extend the period by another five years. However, in the case on hand, it is not the case of the respondents that by invoking proviso, the Government has extended time. The petitioner also enclosed the Detailed Development Plan No.7 in the typed set of papers. A perusal of the same would suggest that the Detailed Development Plan No.7 was approved by the Commissioner of the Town and Country Planning as early as 16.04.2008, more than 15 years have gone from the date of approval of the Detailed Development Plan. Therefore, even assuming that the proviso was invoked, even that period is also over. In such circumstances, there is no difficulty in coming to the conclusion that above mentioned land of the petitioner, which was reserved for proposed Scheme Park under the
