The petitioner/A1, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 353, 355, and 506(i) of I.P.C, in Crime No.229 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is the Co-chairman of the School Management Committee in the school and the de-facto complainant were working in the same school. On 15.08.2023, the Independence Day celebration in the school campus on that time, distribution of funds to the students were conducted, on that time the petitioner raised the question from whom the amount was received to who it was disbursed. On that time, due to wordy quarrel arose between the petitioner and the de-facto complainant he lodged a complaint. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that A2 has been arrested and remanded to judicial custody. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
