The petitioners/A1 and A2, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 307 and 506(2) of I.P.C., in Crime No.319 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that 12.08.2023, there was a wordy quarrel between the de-facto complainant's father-in-law and the petitioner herein regarding auto riding dispute. When the de-facto complainant tried to save his father-in-law, the petitioners abused and assaulted the de-facto complainant with hands and a knife and caused blood injury. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to dispute regarding an auto riding the petitioners herein abused and assaulted the de-facto complainant and he sustained injury. There are four previous case is pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, considering the overt act of the first petitioner this petition is dismissed as far as the second petitioner is concerned, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the second petitioner and petition is partly-allowed.

7. Accordingly, the second petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No-II, Thiruvallur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on
