SENTHILKUMAR RAMAMOORTHY,J

All these applications are filed by a private limited company, which is offering to purchase specific parcels of land belonging to the company-in-liquidation at the prices indicated in the respective application.

2.The sale of the assets of the company-in-liquidation is required to be undertaken through a tender or auction process. Consequently, the request of the applicant herein cannot be countenanced. By leaving it open to the applicant to participate in the auction process, as and when these properties are brought for sale, these applications are closed.
