2.The case of the prosecution is that there is a civil dispute pending between the petitioner and the de-facto complainant. On 03.09.2023, the petitioner unnecessarily scolded the de-facto complainant with filthy language also attacked him and threatened with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The de-facto complainant is adjacent land owner and there is a pathway dispute pending between them. On 03.09.2023, the de-facto complainant and his henchmen damaged the fencing of petitioner's land and it was questioned by the petitioner, all of the sudden, the de-facto complainant and his henchmen attacked the petitioner. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that there is a dispute pending between the petitioner and the de-facto complainant due to which the petitioner abused attacked and threatened the de-facto complainant. There is one previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Ranipet on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.
