RMT. TEEKAA RAMAN.,J.

The petitioner/A1 who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 449, 506(ii) and 307 of I.P.C.,r/w Section 25(1A) of Arms Act, in Crime No.89 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 14.06.2023 when the de-facto complainant and his friend went to tea shop at that time the first accused along with his friends came to that spot in a Xylo and Maruti Swift Car. On seeing the de-facto complainant the petitioner and his friends abused him in filthy language and also threatened with a gun and first accused taken a knife and attacked the de-facto complainant. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioners.

4.Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that more previous case is pending against the petitioners. However, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (crl.side) and perused the materials available on record.

6.Taking into the facts and circumstance of the case and considering the nature and gravity of the offence committed by the petitioners, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners for the present, with a liberty to file fresh application after passage of time or change in circumstances.

7.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
