4. In response, learned counsel for the petitioner stated that both the petitioner and the defacto complainant are educated persons and their sexual relationship was consensual. It is seen that father of the present petitioner had been taken into custody and been released on bail, but however, the learned counsel for the respondent stated that the petitioner has been absconding. The statement of the victim girl had been recorded on 03.08.2023 by the learned Judicial Magistrate I, Karaikal and it is clear that she had reiterated the allegations particularly under Section 376(2)(n) and 417 IPC.

5. Taking all these factors into consideration, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
