CrI.O.P.No.26580 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 366, 511 & 506(1) of IPC r/w Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.223 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the de-facto complainant is that the accused had attempted to abduct her. The further allegation is that the accused had intimidated and compelled her to marry one Vijayakumar. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case, since he is the relative of A1. He further submitted that the petitioner was not even present at the scene of occurrence and he was dragged into this case, due to the previous enmity. He also stated that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with the other accused attempted to abduct the de-facto complainant and intimidated her to marry one Vijayakumar. He also submitted that the victim girl was secured and the investigation is almost completed. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (CrI.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and taking note of the fact that the investigation is almost completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
