The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324, 379 & 506(ii) of IPC and Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No.543 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 14.10.2022, the first petitioner's dog tried to bite the de-facto complainant, while she crossing his house and when the same was questioned by the de-facto complainant, the first petitioner along with the other accused have abused her in a filthy language and assaulted her with hands and stick, causing injuries and have also taken 1 sovereign of gold chain and cell phone from her. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to the previous enmity, they have been falsely implicated in this case. He also stated that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that when the dog of the first petitioner tried to bite the de-facto complainant, she questioned the same to the first petitioner, due to which, the first petitioner along with others have abused and assaulted the de-facto complainant, causing injuries and threatened her with dire consequences and have also taken away her gold chain. He also stated the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
