The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 341, 294(b), 323, 324, 379 and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.336 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. 1st to 4th accused are before this Court seeking anticipatory bail in Crime No.336 of 2023 for the alleged offences under Sections 341, 294(b), 323, 324, 379 and 506(2) of IPC. The learned counsel for the petitioners stated that petitioners are innocent of the offences charged. It is contended by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners that A2 and A3 were released on bail on the same day at the time of remand itself. It has been stated that learned Magistrate had noted that there is a possibility of compromise between the accused persons and the defacto complainant. Thus, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

3. In response, learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) submitted that, due to the quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, the accused had abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted him and the accused have threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences and hence this petition may be dismissed.

4. Taking an over all consideration of the entire issue, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned X Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore, Chennai on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent Police, daily at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560];

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC;
