Crl.O.P.No.22844 of 2023

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.516 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners had parked the vehicle in the judges' car parking at the Court premises and this was objected by some of the advocates in the Court. As a result, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the advocates, which escalated into violence, leading to lodging of complaint and registration of First Information Report.

3.Taking all these factors into consideration, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners herein with certain conditions.

4. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No-III, Salem, on condition that each one of the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees

Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the 1st, 2nd, 4th and 5th petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation and the 3rd petitioner shall report before the respondent police weekly once i.e., on every Monday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate
