Crl.O.P.No.22917 of 2023

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The petitioners/A1 to A3, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(1) of I.P.C, in Crime No.262 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity with regard to land dispute, the petitioner assaulted and attacked the de-facto complainant. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and due to previous enmity regarding land dispute, a false complaint has been given against them. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent would submit that due to previous enmity regarding land dispute, the petitioner assaulted and attacked the de-facto complainant.

He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.1, Vellore on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-
