The learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the petition and has made an endorsement to that effect.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would further submit that on account of his professional commitments, the petitioner has to travel frequently. Hence the appearance of the petitioner may be dispensed with before the Trial Court.

3. Having regard to the request made by the petitioner, the appearance of the petitioner before the Trial Court is dispensed with unless the learned Magistrate deems his presence necessary for the progress of the Trial.

4. With the above observation, the Criminal Original Petition is dismissed as withdrawn. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
