ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by M.SUNDAR, J.,]

Captioned 'Habeas Corpus Petition' ['HCP' for the sake of brevity] has been filed by wife of the detenu assailing a 'preventive detention order dated 26.09.2022 bearing reference D.O.No.C2/59/2022' [hereinafter 'impugned detention order' for the sake of convenience and brevity]. To be noted, fifth respondent is the sponsoring authority and second respondent is the detaining authority as impugned detention order has been made by second respondent.

2. Impugned detention order has been made under 'The Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Cyber law offenders, Drug-offenders, Forest-offenders, Goondas, Immoral traffic offenders, Sand-offenders, Sexual-offenders, Slum-grabbers and Video Pirates Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act No.14 of 1982)' [hereinafter 'Act 14 of 1982' for the sake of convenience and clarity] on the premise that the detenu is a 'Goonda' within the meaning of Section 2(f) of Act 14 of 1982.

3. The ground case which is the sole substratum of the impugned detention order is Crime No.237 of 2022 on the file of Chinna Salem Police Station for alleged offences under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 332, 353, 436, 506(ii) of 'The Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860)' [hereinafter 'IPC' for the sake of convenience and clarity] read with Sections 3, 4 and 5 of Tamil Nadu Property (Prevention of Damage and Loss) Act, 1992 subsequently altered into one under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 332, 353, 436, 506(ii) and 109 of IPC read with Sections 3, 4 and 5 of Tamil Nadu Property (Prevention of Damage and Loss) Act, 1992. Owing to the nature of the challenge to the impugned detention order, it is not necessary to delve into the factual matrix or be detained further by facts.

4. Ms.M.Benazir Begum, learned counsel on record for petitioner and Mr.R.Muniyapparaj, learned State Additional Public Prosecutor assisted by Mr.M.Sylvester John, learned counsel, for all respondents are before us.

5. Today in the final hearing, we are informed by both sides that another accused (Parameshwaran) in the same chain of incidents was clamped with a preventive detention order similar to the impugned preventive detention order. In the case of the other accused namely Thiru.Parameshwaran, his spouse S.Bhavani challenged the similar preventive detention order vide H.C.P. No.1957 of 2022 and after full contest, the same was allowed by this Court vide order dated 30.03.2023 which is reported in neutral citation of this Court in 2023:MHC:1531. detention order' for the sake of convenience and brevity]. To be noted, fifth respondent is the sponsoring authority and second respondent is the detaining authority as the impugned detention order has been made by second respondent.

2. Impugned detention order has been made under 'The Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Cyber law offenders, Drug-offenders, Forest-offenders, Goondas, Immoral traffic offenders, Sand-offenders, Sexual-offenders, Slum-grabbers and Video Pirates Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act No.14 of 1982)' [hereinafter 'Act 14 of 1982' for the sake of convenience and clarity] on the premise that the detenu is a 'Goonda' within the meaning of Section 2(f) of Act 14 of 1982.

3. There is no adverse case. This solitary case which is the sole substratum of the impugned detention order is Crime No.237 of 2022 on the file of Chinnasalem Police Station for the alleged offences under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 332, 353, 436, 506(ii) of The Indian Penal Code (45 of 1860) [hereinafter 'IPC' for the sake of convenience and clarity] read with Sections 3, 4 and 5 of the Tamil Nadu Property (Prevention of Damage and Loss) Act, 1992. Owing to the nature of the challenge to the impugned detention order, it is not necessary to delve into the factual matrix or be detained further by facts.

4. Mr.S.Anbazhagan, learned counsel on record for petitioner and Mr.R.Muniyapparaj, learned State Additional Public Prosecutor, assisted by Mr.M.Sylvester John, learned counsel for all respondents are before us.

5. Though very many grounds have been raised in the support affidavit, learned counsel for petitioner at the hearing projected his argument qua challenge to the impugned detention order on one point and that point is not providing translated copy of a document (relied on by the detaining authority) in a language which the detenu is conversant with. Elaborating on the submission, learned counsel drew our attention to page No.97 of the booklet which is the similar case bail order. No Tamil translation of this order has been furnished to the detenu. We had the benefit of perusing the booklet. We also noticed that the similar case bail order forms part of the ground on which the impugned detention order has been made. As this turns on obtaining scenario which comes to light from the booklet which is before us, learned State Additional Public Prosecutor does not have much of a say.

6. Be that as it may, we are informed that the literacy level of the detenu is 6th standard in school and he is a school drop out. We are also informed that the detenu is conversant only with Tamil. In this regard, learned counsel drew our attention to page No.68 (confession statement) of the booklet which reads as follows:

'எனக்கு படிப்பு ஏறாததால் 6ஆம் வகுப்பு படித்துக் கொண்டிருந்தபோது மாதியிலேயே நின்று விட்டு என் அப்பா அம்மாவுடன் எங்கள் ஊரிலும் சுற்று வட்டார பகுதிகளிலும் கரும்பு வெட்டும் கூலி வேலை செய்து பிழைத்து வருகிறேன்.'

7. We remind ourselves of Powanammal case i.e., Powanammal Vs. State of Tamil Nadu, wherein Hon'ble Supreme Court addressed itself to this translation point in a similar fact situation. The question which the Hon'ble Supreme Court addressed itself to is captured in paragraph 6 and Page Nos.5/8

the manner in which a Hon'ble Bench of the Supreme Court answered this question is captured in paragraph 16. To be noted, Powanammal case is reported in (1999) 2 SCC 413 and paragraphs 6 and 16 (as in SCC journal) read as follows:

'6. The short question that falls for our consideration is whether failure to supply the Tamil version of the order of remand passed in English, a language not known to the detainee, would vitiate her further detention.

16. For the above reasons, in our view, the non-supply of the Tamil version of the English document, on the facts and in the circumstances, renders her continued detention illegal. We therefore, direct that the detainee be set free forthwith unless she is required to be detained in any other case. The appeal is accordingly allowed. '

8. We find that the aforementioned Powanammal case applies in all fours to the case on hand as we find that similar case bail order which has been relied on as part of the grounds of detention qua impugned detention order is a crucial document and not furnishing the same in Tamil the lone language known to the detenu has impaired his constitutional right to make an effective representation of the impugned detention order. We therefore have no hesitation in saying that the impugned detention order deserves to be dislodged,

9. Before concluding, we also remind ourselves that preventive detention is not a punishment and HCP is a high prerogative writ.

10. Apropos, the sequitur is, captioned HCP is allowed. Impugned detention order dated 28.08.2022 bearing reference D.O.No.C2/42/2022 made by the second respondent is set aside and the detenu Thiru.Parameshwaran, aged 23 years, son of Murugan, is directed to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in connection with any other case / cases. There shall be no order as to costs.

6. It is the further submission of learned counsel for petitioner that the point on which H.C.P. No.1957 of 2022 was allowed i.e., similar bail order not translated though it has been relied on in the impugned preventive detention order, is available to the detenu in the instant case also. This by itself concludes the matter as inevitable sequitur is impugned detention order also deserves to be dislodged. We are reminded of the age old adage 'Sauce to Goose is sauce to Gander too'.

7. Apropos, the sequitur is, captioned HCP is allowed. Impugned detention order dated 26.09.2022 bearing reference D.O.No.C2/59/2022 made by the second respondent is set aside and the detenu Thiru.Vijay, aged 26 years, son of Thiru.Kumar, is directed to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in connection with any other case / cases.
