Civil Revision Petition filed Under Article 227 of Constitution of India, praying to set aside the fair and decretal order dated 14.08.2023 passed in I.A.No.3 of 2023 in O.S.No.192 of 2015 on the file of the District Munsif, Chengam.

For Petitioners : Mrs.V.Divia Bharathi

ORDER

The petitioner has filed this petition to set aside the fair and decretal order dated 14.08.2023 passed in I.A.No.3 of 2023 in O.S.No.192 of 2015 on the file of the District Munsif, Chengam.

3. Before the trial Court the petitioners has filed I.A.No.1 to 3 of 2023 under Section 151 of CPC for re-opening the plaintiffs side evidence, and filed under Order XVIII, Rule 17 of CPC for Re-calling PW.1 and the petition filed under Order VII, Rule 14(2) of CPC to receive Additional Document in evidence through P.W.1. The plaintiffs have filed the suit for declaration of their title over the suit schedule property and for delivery of vacant possession, and the evidence of both side has been completed on 14.02.2023 and the suit has been posted for arguments on 27.02.2023, that one Rajan, paternal uncle of the 1st petitioner had executed unregistered “Deed of Right” dated 15.04.1971 in favour of the 1st petitioner's father Argumuga Chettiyar, that the said deed was not available at the time of filing of the suit. The applications were strongly resisted by the defendant stating that before completion of evidence the plaintiffs ought to have vigilant to adduce the documents, but after completion of the evidence filing such documents would create new factum rights. Considering both sides submissions, the learned trial Judge dismissed all the applications stating that at belated stage the applications were filed, and when the case is posted for arguments it cannot be permitted. Aggrieved that the plaintiffs have preferred this revision petition.

4. The learned counsel for the respondent submitted that, now the case is posted for arguments and necessity arose for them to produce the deed of right dated 15.04.1971, as un-registered one, based on that the properties were divided on 19.10.1926. Accordingly, the present document also came into force, therefore, necessity arose for them to produce the documents.

5. On a perusal of the records, it reveals that, the documents from the year 1926 were relied on by the plaintiffs. Admittedly, the additional document is of the year 1971, which is an unregistered one, but if at all any terms between the parties can be proved by adducing proper evidence from the year 1926 onwards, the same can be permitted so that the plaintiff can produce the document of the year 1971.

6. On considering the entire cause of action of the suit clubbed with facts and circumstance and arises from the year 1926. The learned trial Judge failed to appreciate the same and erroneously dismissed, which needs interference by this Court. Now the case is posted for arguments therefore if opportunity is not given to the petitioners, their valuable right to defend their case will be defeated. Therefore, the findings rendered by the learned trial Judge in I.A.No.3 of 2023 are set aside. Liberty is granted to put forth their contention while marking of the said documents and the validity of the documents can be decided only after completion of the trial. The parties are directed to co-operate for the proceedings.

7. Accordingly, this Civil Revision petition is Allowed. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous petition is closed. There shall be no order as to costs.
