The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294b, 323, 324 and 506(1) of I.P.C, in Crime No.264 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner herein is actually the son-in-law of the de-facto complainant. There had been marital disputes between the petitioner and the daughter of the de-facto complainant and owing to that, the de-facto complainant and her daughter/wife of the present petitioner had gone over to the residence of the petitioner demanding the property which had been given earlier during the course of marriage. Subsequently at that time, there was a wordy quarrel which accelerated into violence. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent submits that due the wordy quarrel between the petitioner and de-facto complainant accelerated into violence. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
