The petitioner/A2 in Crime No.10 of 2023 registered under Sections 406, 420 and 506 (ii) IPC seeks anticipatory bail.

2.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent.

3.It is the case of the prosecution that the de facto complainant was a friend of the 1st accused. The 1st accused had insisted the de facto complainant to make an investment in a business by constituting a Partnership Firm. The de facto complainant also agreed. She had then given the title deeds of her immovable property for raising funds. The 1st accused had received a sum of Rs.1,50,000/- from the de facto complainant. The accused had also received jewels from the de facto complainant. It is stated that the petitioner herein acting as power of attorney agent, had however sold the property for a total sale consideration of Rs.6,00,000/- to a third party. This has necessitated lodging of a complaint and registration of FIR. The learned counsel for the petitioner stated that it was the 1st accused who had received the amounts and jewels from the de facto complainant. But however as power of attorney agent, the petitioner herein/A2 is also liable for accounts for any transaction conducted as agent of the principal.

4. In view of that particular fact, after hearing both the sides, a direction is given to the petitioner/A2 herein to deposit a sum of Rs.1,50,000/- to the credit of Crime No.10 of 2023, pending before the Judicial Magistrate, Vannur at Villupuram District. On such deposit, the learned Judicial Magistrate may hand over the said amount to the de facto complainant. The learned counsel for the petitioner however stated that with respect to the money transactions a Civil Suit in O.S.No.17 of 2023, pending on the file of the Sub Court at Tindivanam. If any decree is passed in that particular Sub Court, either party can claim either set off or adjustment of this amount of Rs.1,50,000/-.

5. Accordingly, the petitioner/A2 is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vannur, Villupuram District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
