Crl.O.P.No.24010 of 2023

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 342, 323, 324 and 506(i) of I.P.C, in Crime No.390 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is husband of de-facto complainant. The petitioner had entered into relationship with another lady and that was questioned by the de-facto complainant which became a quarrel and petitioner assaulted the de-facto complainant and her toenail was injured. Hence the case.

3. The learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) for the respondent submits that due to matrimonial dispute the petitioner assaulted the de-facto complainant and caused injury. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record including the FIR.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side that the F.I.R has been registered against the petitioner and the same must be informed to the employer namely DLF-Porur by the respondent Police. They must register it in their records and the petitioner is working as a Senior Detailer in DLF-Porur. There is a female child born to them. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Poonamallee, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further
