The petitioner/A3 who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 4(1)(A) r/w 4(1)(a) of TNP Act, in Crime No.423 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the 1st and 2nd petitioners were found in possession of 103 bottles of 180ML Monitor brandy and 67 bottles of 180ML Vorion brandy which was illegally sold by the petitioners. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he is no way connected with the alleged offence. He would further submit that without prejudice, the petitioner is prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.15,000/- as non- refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government and he is prepared to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the 1st and 2nd accused have already arrested and released on bail. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel and perused the entire materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. It is seen that there is no previous case against the petitioner and in order to curb the illegal activities with which the petitioner indulged, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioner shall be directed to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) as non refundable deposit to the account of the Dean, Stanley Government Hospital, Chennai, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, without prejudice to his rights and contentions before the trial Court.

7. It is made clear that merely, because the petitioner has deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

8. Taking note of the facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

(a) The petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) as non-refundable deposit either through RTGS/NEFT or in cash in favour of the Dean, Stanley Government Hospital, Chennai, within period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Thereafter, the petitioner is directed to be released on bail
