3. It is now reported that the notice sent through court has been served by speed post on the 19th Respondent. The 20th Respondent is a minor represented by the 19th Respondent. Though private notice is not served and returned with an endorsement "No such person", since the notice has been issued by speed post on the 19th Respondent, who is the guardian of the 20th Respondent, this Court is inclined to dispose of all these applications.
4. The relationship is not disputed by other Respondents. This Court is convinced with the reasons for the long delay in filing the applications. Hence, these petitions are ordered.
