Crl.OP.No.23844 of 2023

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 379 IPC read with Section 21(1) of Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.1128 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police seek anticipatory bail.

2.The learned counsel for the petitioners stated that petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in the case registered in Crime No.1128 of 2023, for the offences under Section 379 IPC read with Section 21(1) of Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957. Thus, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

3. It is stated by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) that, on 07.10.2023, at about 03.05 p.m, defacto complainant along with the police party were engaged in routine surveillance, near Yenaathur-Kancheepuram road. At that time, they found the accused transporting 4 units of gravel sand in a Lorry bearing registration No.TN 14 AA 3918 without any valid permit. On seeing the police, they escaped from the scene of occurrence. It is also stated that the vehicle and gravel sand had been recovered. Thus, he prayed for dismissal of this petition.

4.Considering the fact that vehicle and gravel sand had been recovered, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate II, Kancheepuram, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that: surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the first petitioner without prejudice to her defence shall deposit a non-refundable sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only) and the second petitioner without prejudice to his defence shall deposit a non-refundable sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) by way of Demand Draft to the District Revenue Officer, Kancheepuram District and that the receipt of such payment shall be produced before the concerned Magistrate at the time of executing the bond; It is made clear that merely, because the petitioners deposit the said amount, it would not amount to admission of their guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

[c] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.00.a.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter, as and when required by the respondent police.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
