3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has submitted an on-line application to the third respondent on 07.11.2022 to survey and demarcate the boundaries of the subject properties and he has also remitted adequate fees through on-line, however, for the past one year, there was no response from the respondents. Hence, the petitioner is before this Court by way of writ petition.

4. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondents submitted that that respondents may be directed to consider the petitioner's application and pass orders on merits in accordance with law.

5. Having regard to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, taking into consideration the limited prayer sought for by the petitioner, without expressing any opinion with regard to the merits of the case, this Court directs the respondents to consider the on-line application of the petitioner's dated 07.11.2022, and pass appropriate orders on merits and
