The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 447, 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.616 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.It is stated that there was a civil dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant over construction of house, which dispute escalated into violence, leading to registration of First Information Report. It is also stated that the injured had been discharged from the hospital.

3.Taking all these factors into consideration, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

4. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.1I, Kallakurichi, on condition that each one of the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the 1st and 3rd petitioners shall report before the respondent police at 10.30 a.m., on every Monday for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation and the 2nd petitioner shall report before the respondent daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the
