petitioners have been issued pattas, however, the respondents have issued notice under Section 7 of the Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act, 1905 contending that the petitioners have encroached the land in S.No.536. The same is illegal. The petitioners are in occupation of their own properties situated in S.No.536.

3. It is submitted that the respondents have demolished the structures of the petitioners on 09.03.2023. Representations have been given to the Collector to conduct an enquiry.

4. The petitioners have the right to get their land measured. The petitioners may make applications for measurement of their lands along with the necessary fees. If such applications are made by the petitioners, then the competent authority shall undertake measurement of the lands of the petitioners and demarcate the same. Depending upon the report of the measurement, the parties may take further steps.
