

CMP.No.25076 of 2023
in Rev.Appl Sr.No.136854 of 2023

N.SESHASAYEE, J.

A suit in O.S.No.2 of 1988 was laid for vacating the tenants and this appears to be nearing its closure. Petitions were taken out for executing the decree by the plaintiff, and finally it culminated in CRP.No.2210 of 2016, that went in the favour of the plaintiff/decreed holder. This Court is informed that the tenants/occupants of the property have approached the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India challenging this order but, have lost it. The Judgment Debtor/revision petitioner has now filed a petition for reviewing the order passed by this Court along with the present petition for condoning the delay in filing the review petition. However, the matter suddenly took a turn towards peace, since the parties decided to resolve the same amicably.

2.A memo of compromise dated 01.11.2023 signed by all the parties and the respective counsel is filed before this Court. This Court enquired with the parties and is satisfied with the legality and genuinity of the compromise.
