Crl.O.P.No.25088 of 2023

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The petitioner/first accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 420, 468, 471 of IPC in Crime No.141 of 2023, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The petitioner was appointed as Sanitary worker in Town Panchayat and accusedd Nos. 2 and 3 are the Panchayat President and Councillor respectively. It was subsequently found that the certificate under which the petitioner got employment was forged certificate.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the accused Nos. 2 and 3 had been granted the relief of anticipatory bail.

4. In view of the above, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate, Palacode, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., until further order.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
