Crl.OP.No.25537 of 2023

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The petitioners, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 430 IPC in Crime No.356 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police seek anticipatory bail.

2.The learned counsel for the petitioners stated that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in the case registered in Crime No.356 of 2023, for the offences under Sections 379 and 430 IPC. Thus, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

3. It is stated by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) that, on 12.08.2023 at about 04.00 a.m., defacto complainant along with the police party were engaged in routine surveillance. At that time, they found the accused transporting 1/2 unit of river sand in two Bullock Carts. It is also stated that the Bullock Carts and the river sand had been recovered. Thus, he prayed for dismissal of this petition.

Chengalpattu District and that the receipt of such payment shall be produced before the concerned Magistrate at the time of executing the bond; It is made clear that merely because the petitioners deposit the said amount, it would not amount to admission of their guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

[c] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter, as and when required by the respondent police.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
