4.It is the contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is innocent of the offence and other accused had been granted bail. But however, counter affidavit had been filed wherein it is very specifically stated that the family of the defacto complainant are very much afraid since the petitioner herein is a notorious criminal and he would take revenge against them. It had also been very specifically stated that he is a history sheeter.

5.It is also stated that video coverage is also available for the offence and the vehicles, mobile phone and other articles had also seized by the Investigating Officer at the place of occurrence.

6.Taking into consideration the seriousness of the offence and that the bad antecedents of the petitioner, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
