Crl.OP.No.25895 of 2023

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 511 IPC read with Section 21(1) of Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.240 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The learned counsel for the petitioner stated that petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in the case registered in Crime No.240 of 2023, for the offences under Sections 379 and 511 IPC read with Section 21(1) of Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957. Thus, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

3. It is stated by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) that based on the complaint given by the Village Administrative Officer, FIR has been registered against the accused for illegally accumulating clay in their land.

payment shall be produced before the concerned Magistrate at the time of executing the bond; It is made clear that merely because the petitioner deposits the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

[c] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter, as and when required by the respondent police.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
