Crl.O.P.No.32303 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.492 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that during a quarrel in the tasmac shop, the petitioner along with other accused have abused him in filthy language, assaulted him with beer bottle and hands. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would further submit that there was a quarrel in the tasmac shop, due to which, a false complaint has been given against him. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that during a quarrel in the tasmac shop, the petitioner along with other accused have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with beer bottle. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there are nine previous cases pending against him. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.In reply, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is ready and willing to pay a sum of Rs.15,000/- to the credit of Crime No.492 of 2022 towards the alleged medical expenses incurred by the defacto complainant and co-accused in this case have already been enlarged on bail. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6.Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also of the fact
