Crl.O.P.No.26674 of 2023

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 430 & 379 IPC read with Section 21(1) of Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957, in Crime No.189 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police seek anticipatory bail.

2.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side).

3.It is stated that the petitioner had illegally transported one unit of river sand in a Lorry. However, it is stated that the river sand and the vehicle had been recovered.

4.Taking into consideration of the fact that the vehicle and the river sand had been seized from the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate, Arakonam, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b]the petitioners without prejudice to their defence shall deposit a non-refundable sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), jointly, by way of Demand Draft to the District Revenue Officer, Ranipet District and that the receipt of such payment shall be produced before the concerned Magistrate at the time of executing the bond; It is made clear that merely because the petitioners deposit the said amount, it would not amount to admission of their guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.
