The petitioners who apprehend arrest for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 420, 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.493 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners on false promise obtained a sum of Rs.18,00,000/- from the defacto complainant, that they will secure a job for defacto complainant's wife and cheated him. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submits that there is some money transaction between the petitioners and the defacto complainant and cheated him to the tune of Rs.18,00,000/-. He further stated that proceedings under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instructions Act, is also pending. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the submissions made by the both counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Krishnagiri District on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] First, second and fourth petitioners are directed to report before the respondent police on every Monday and Friday at 10.30 a.m., for the period of six weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation and the third petitioner is directed to report before the respondent police as and when required for the interrogation.

[c] the petitioners shall deposit totally a sum of Rs.2,00,000/-(Rupees Two Lakhs only) to the credit of Crime No.493 of 2022 before the concerned Magistrate, at the time of furnishing sureties.

[d] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the
