Crl.O.P.No.32693 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 379 and 430 of IPC in Crime No.513 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is alleged to have transported 1/2 unit of river sand illegally by using Ashok Leyland Lorry. Hence the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and that a case of sand theft has been fabricated against him. He would further submit that without prejudice to his contentions, the petitioner is prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- towards any charitable organization or association. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the quantity of river sand involved is

1/2 unit. He would further submit that there are three previous cases pending against him. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

6.Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned Counsel and also of the fact that the investigation has been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions;

7.Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the Registered Advocate Clerk Association, Villupuram and on such receipt and receipt of proof of payment, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date
