Crl.O.P.No.32495 of 2022

T.V.THAMILSELVI, J.

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 147, 148, 294-B, 323, 324, 427, 506-II of IPC in Cr.No. 345 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity in local body election, the petitioners along with other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant with iron rod and that the defacto complainant sustained injuries in the head. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that there is a case in counter registered against the defacto complainant. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that these petitioners along with other accused persons, attacked the defacto complainant with iron rod and the defacto complainant sustained injuries in the head. He further submit the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners

5. Considering the fact that the it is a case and a case in counter, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vanur, Villupuram, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) each, with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(a) the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Court concerned may obtain a
