ORDER

Heard Mr.J.Lakshmi Narayanan, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.R.Venkatesa Perumal, learned Standing Counsel for Respondents 1 and 2 and Mr.CSK.Sathish, learned Standing Counsel for third respondent.

2. The petitioner herein had given a representation to the respondents on 22.09.2023 to disburse the petitioner the difference in interest paid towards the belated disbursement of his commuted value of pension with further interest at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of entitlement to till the date of actual payment. Since the said representation was not considered, the present writ petition has been filed.

3. It is needless to point out that whenever a representation of this nature is made to a Statutory Authority, there is a duty cast upon them to consider the same on its own merits and pass appropriate orders in one way or other, instead of keeping the same pending indefinitely. As such, non-consideration of the representation by the Statutory Authority would amount to dereliction of duty and hence, this Court will be justified in invoking its extraordinary powers under Article 226 of the Constitution of the India and direct them to consider the same within a stipulated time.

4. In the light of the above observations, there shall be a direction to the first respondent herein to consider the petitioner's representation dated 22.09.2023 in the light of order passed by this Court dated 12.09.2023 in W.P.No.26660 of 2023 etc., batch and on its own merits and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is made clear that this Court has not expressed any of its views with regard to the merits of the claim made by the petitioner and that it is open to the concerned respondent to consider the same on its own merits.

5. With the above direction, the Writ Petition stands disposed of.

No costs.
