M. NIRMAL KUMAR, J.

These petitions have been filed to condone the delay of 164 days in representing the above revisions.

2.Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner.

3.Mr.A.Damodaran, learned Additional Public Prosecutor strongly objects for the condonation of delay stating that in this case, the co-accused filed discharge petitions and the same were dismissed, against which, he filed revisions before this Court in Crl.R.C.Nos.498, 499, 500, 501, 528, 529, 530, 532, 533, 534 of 2023. This Court, by order dated 23.11.2023, dismissed the same. He further submitted that the petitioner is A3 in this case, against him there are materials. The petitioner's contention that surcharge proceedings being set aside will no be a ground for discharge in a criminal case, which had been rightly held by the Trial Court. He further submitted that the case is posted before the Trial Court on 19.12.2023 for examination of PW1 to PW3. In this case already charges framed, hence, these petitions have become infructuous.

4.Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that he has got other grounds to support his contentions. In view of giving opportunity to the petitioner, this Court is inclined to condone the delay.

5.Accordingly, the delay stands condoned and the petitions are ordered. It is made clear that the trial before the Lower Court shall proceed. The pendency of the above petitions would no way hinder the progress of the trial.
