ORDER

Petitioner herein is the daughter of Mohamed Jainamb, who is a retired staff at Primary Health Centre. There is a civil dispute between the petitioner herein, her sister and the deceased mother. The parents of the petitioner got separated in the year 1997. At the time of her death, Mohamed Jainamb was with their sisters. Since, petitioner was not informed about the death of her mother, petitioner herein suspects that, there is some foul play in her mother's death and therefore, petitioner lodged a complaint. The complaint was taken for investigation by the Inspector of Police, Sulur Police, Coimbatore in FIR No.803 of 2023 dated 25.11.2023. The body of Moohamed Jainamb was sent for post mortem at E.S.I Hospital, Coimbatore. Since, autopsy report indicates that no anitmortem external injuries noted anywhere in the body, suspecting post-mortem report, present petition is filed seeking direction to conduct re-postmortem.

2. This Court does not find any reason to entertain this petition just because there is suspicion by one of the daughter about the death of her mother. Police has already registered the FIR and the autopsy report indicates that, there is no external injuries noted and viscera report is awaited. It is for the Investigation Officer to take appropriate decision after receipt of the viscera report

3. With these observations, this Writ Petition is disposed of.
