Crl.O.P.No.28985 of 2023

P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner/A1, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(a), 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.187 of 2023 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that, on 27.11.2023 at about 06.00 a.m., the petitioner along with co-accused entered into the house of the de-facto complainant, abused the de-facto complainant and his wife in filthy language, attacked them with wooden log and also threatened them with knife. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and due to previous enmity a false case has been foisted against him. Hence he seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that due to previous enmity, petitioner along with co-accused abused the de-facto complainant and his wife in filthy language, attacked them with wooden log and threatened them with knife. The injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that there are four previous cases pending against the petitioner. Hence he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the rival submissions on either side and considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and also considering the fact that except 506(ii) of IPC, other offences are bailable in nature, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned

District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Thiruporur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of thirty days and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
