Crl.O.P.No.29221 of 2023

P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 427, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.309 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant Mr.Rajkumar and his friends, while playing volley ball, threw the ball towards the house of the accused and thereafter the accused used filthy language against the defacto complainant, threatened him and also attacked him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him. Hence he seeks anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the rival submissions on either side and considering the fact that the injured sustained only simple injuries, discharged from hospital and also considering the fact that except 506(ii) of IPC other offences are bailable in nature, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Jayankondam, Ariyalur District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police at 10.30 a.m., on every Saturday for a period of four (4) weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
