4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) would submit that the defacto complainant had parted money for business to the petitioners. However, the petitioners had cheated the money. When the defacto complainant requested return of money, the accused persons threatened him with dire consequences. Therefore, he objected to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5.Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the gravity of the offences and also considering the money involved in this case, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
