PETITIONS FOR ANTICIPATORY BAIL Under Sec.438 of Cr.P.C

COMMON PRAYER :-

For Anticipatory Bail in Crime No.917 of 2022 on the file of the Respondent Police.

COMMON ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners/accused who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No. 917 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the De-Facto Complainant, is that he is a tenant under A2 / first petitioner herein and he has been running a tyre shop after paying a sum of Rs.29,00,000/- as advance. While so, there was a dispute with regard to the property between A1 and his family members. During the Covid pandemic situation, the defacto complainant was not able to run a business properly and in that circumstances, A2 had attempted to evict him by force and thereby, the defacto complainant has filed a suit in O.S.No.597 of 2018 on the file of District Court, Madurai seeking a relief not to evict other than by due process of law. While so, the defacto complainant on 26.11.2022 attempted to open the shop in order to get back the articles stored in and at that time, the accused persons along with Advocate have demanded a sum of Rs.10,00,000/- for opening a shop and attacked him with wooden log and also abused the defacto complainant in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

4. It seems that there is a landlord tenant dispute. Infact the defacto complainant filed a suit in O.S. No.597 of 2018 pending on the file of the District Court, Madurai seeking relief that he should not be evicted without due process of law. There are so many cases pending between them. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners , with certain conditions:

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned judicial Magistrate No.II, Madurai on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the responder as and when required for interrogation

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

WEB COPY [d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
