obtained pursuant to the registration of the document. The petitioner wants these documents to be cancelled and representation was made to the respondents. Since the same was not considered, the present writ petition has been filed before this Court.

4. In the considered view of this Court, the ground that has been raised by the petitioner seeking for the cancellation of the documents cannot be dealt with by the District Registrar. If documents have been registered pursuant to the decree passed by the Court and according to the petitioner, these documents are null and void, the petitioner will have to challenge the decree passed by the civil Court and seek for the consequential direction to cancel the documents before the civil court. That exercise cannot be done by the Sub Registrar or the District Registrar.

5. In view of the same, the relief sought for by the petitioner cannot be granted by this Court. Liberty is granted to the petitioner to question the civil court decree and the consequential registration of the documents in the manner known to law.
