2. The case of the prosecution is that there existed previous dispute between the petitioners and the second respondent/defacto complainant and that on 05.05.2022, the petitioners had threatened the second respondent and also gave a life threat to him.

5. A Joint Memo of Compromise has been filed before this Court which have been signed by the petitioners and the second respondent and also by their respective counsel. The petitioners and the second respondent were also present in person before this Court and they were identified by Mr.Sivakumar, Sub Inspector, Thiruchuli Police Station as well as by the learned counsels appearing for the parties. This Court also enquired both the parties and was satisfied that the parties have come to an amicable settlement between themselves.

6. In the instant case, the dispute is of personal in nature and now the parties had compromised. Where the parties have compromised the matter, the High Court has power to quash the complaint for the offences under Sections 147, 323 and 506(1) IPC.
