with the police officer a false case has been registered.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioners are from North India and they are habitual offenders involving in theft of cattle and they have three previous cases. He would further submit that there are CCTV footage available to show that the petitioners involved in the offence. He would further submit that the investigation is in preliminary stage and if the accused persons are released on bail, there is every possibility of absconding again, hence he objected to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard. Perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Taking into consideration of the facts and submissions made by the learned counsels and also taking note of the fact that the investigation is in preliminary stage, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioners at this stage.
