For Respondents : Mr.A.Thiruvadi Kumar

Additional Public Prosecutor

ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by M.S.RAMESH,J.)

The petitioner is the father of the detenu viz., Ranjith @ Ranjithkumar, S/o.Rajendran, aged 25 years. The detenu has been detained by the second respondent by his order in Detention Order C.O.C.

HCP(MD)No.223 of 2023

No.30/2022, dated 07.10.2022 holding him to be a "Drug Offender", as contemplated under Section 2(e) of Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982. The said order is under challenge in this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents. We have also perused the records produced by the Detaining Authority.

3. Apart from the other grounds, the main ground that was urged by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is that the detaining authority had taken into consideration the dismissal of all the bail petitions filed by the detenu and in spite of the same, the detaining authority has recorded satisfaction that there is a real and imminent possibility of the detenu coming out on bail without any material. Therefore, it was urged that the detention order suffers from non-application of mind.

HCP(MD)No.223 of 2023

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the detaining authority, without the availability of materials, cannot ipso facto satisfy himself regarding the imminent possibility of the detenu coming out on bail.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor strongly opposed the Habeas Corpus Petition by filing his counter.

6. Insofar as the main ground that was urged by the learned counsel for the petitioner, we have carefully considered the detention order, particularly, paragraph No.6 of the order. The detaining authority has recorded the dismissal of all the bail petitions filed by the detenu. However, a satisfaction has been recorded as if there is a real and imminent possibility of the detenu coming out on bail by filing bail application before the appropriate Court. To arrive at such a satisfaction, there is absolutely no material and the detaining authority has not even placed reliance upon any similar case to atleast come to the conclusion that bail has been granted in a similar case. It is very clear that the detention order suffers from illegality.

The impugned detention order is therefore liable to be quashed.

7. In the result, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the order of detention in C.O.C.No.30/2022, dated 07.10.2022, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu, viz., Ranjith @ Ranjithkumar, S/o.Rajendran, aged 25 years, is directed to be released forthwith unless his detention is required in connection with any other case.
