2.The case of the prosecution, as per the de-facto complainant, is that the accused persons have broke open the house of the de-facto complainant and abused him in filthy language and also attacked him with iron rod resulting in him sustaining injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned Counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and a false complaint has been given. He would also submit that the petitioners have not committed any offence, as alleged by the prosecution. He would also submit that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions, that may be imposed on them. Hence, he would seek for anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (crl.side) would submit that the accused persons have broke open the house of the de-facto complainant and abused him in filthy language and also attacked him with iron rod resulting in him sustaining injuries. He would submit that the injured has been discharged from hospital. However, he would object for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned Counsel. Taking into consideration the facts and submissions and also on perusing the materials available on record including the F.I.R., this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sathankulam, Thoothukudi District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
