ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by R.SURESH KUMAR, J.)

The petitioner, seeking production of her daughter, namely, Harini Priya, aged about 18 years, has filed this Habeas Corpus Petition.

2.Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, the respondent Police has produced the detinue, namely, Harini Priya before this Court. She has stated that she studied 1st year B.Sc., degree and discontinued the course, as she fell in love with the 3rd respondent and thereafter, she left the parental home and had been in Thiruppur for sometime. Now, at the instance of the enquiry of the police, she had been brought before this Court.

3.Now, she wants to continue the course and complete the degree and since the 3rd respondent is still not having the age of marriage, the question of marrying him does not arise at this stage. Therefore, at present, the detinue wants to join with her parents ie., the petitioner and her father to continue her studies.

4.The said statement made by the detinue is recorded. As the detinue wants to go with her parents, who are also present before this Court and they also assured before this Court that they will take the detinue with them and give all attention for her well-being, we feel that having recorded the same, this Habeas Corpus Petition can be closed, accordingly, it is closed.
