the petitioner, due to lockdown. The petitioner therefore, made a representation seeking for extension of the period by six months. The same was not considered and the respondent, through the impugned proceedings informed the petitioner that since the work was not completed within the stipulated period, the security deposit made by the petitioner is being withheld. Aggrieved by the same, this writ petition has been filed before this Court.

4.In the considered view of this Court, the lockdown period brought the entire world to a standstill. Therefore, the petitioner could not have carried out any work during this period. That apart, it was beyond the control of the petitioner and hence, the petitioner had hardly commenced the work and continued for 1 ½ months and thereafter, the petitioner was not able to do any work. In view of the same, it will not be reasonable on the part of the respondent to forfeit the security deposit made by the petitioner.

5.Since the period was over long back, this Court is not inclined to direct the respondent to grant any extension of period.

W.P. (MD).No.5870 of 2021

However, the impugned proceedings of the respondent to the extent of forfeiting the security deposit made by the petitioner, is hereby quashed.

There shall be a direction to the respondent to refund the security deposit made by the petitioner, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order.

6. Accordingly, this writ petition stands allowed in the above terms. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
