Court. When we enquired with the detenue, she submitted that since her mother has become sick and she is taking medical treatment in her uncle's house at Chennai, both went there and she had been in Chennai only to take care of her mother's health. She further submitted that she is ready and willing to talk to the petitioner, who is the husband of the detenue explaining this position and for some days the detenue wants to be with her mother, considering the ill-health of her mother.

3.In view of the said statement given by the detenue, we find that the detenue is not in illegal custody. Hence, recording the same, this Habeas Corpus Petition is closed.
