To call for the records connected with the order passed by R1 in MC No.415/2022/A3 order dt.16/2/2023 against the petitioner namely Prasath @ Peengan Prasath, S/o.Raghunathan, Male Aged about 26 years, who is detained at Central Prison,Tiruchirapali

Order : This petition coming up for orders on this day, upon perusing the petition filed in support thereof and upon hearing the arguments of M/S.KARUNAKARAN K M, Advocate for the petitioner and of Mr.A.ALBERT JAMES, Government Advocate(crl.side) on behalf of the Respondents, the Court made the following order:-

This Criminal Miscellaneous Petition has been filed to suspend the sentence imposed on the petitioner by the Sub Divisional Magistrate/Revenue Divisional Officer, Thanjavur, in M.C.No.415 of 2022, dated 16.02.2023, till the disposal of this Criminal Revision.

2. The first respondent, on the basis of the report of the second respondent, has issued a show cause notice under Section 111 Cr.P.C. to the petitioner and conducted enquiry and ordered the petitioner to execute a bond under Section 107 Cr.P.C., on the same day itself and on that basis, the petitioner has been bound over and released, after executing a bond, for maintaining good behaviour for a period of one year viz., from 17.10.2022 to 16.10.2023. Subsequently, a criminal case was registered against the petitioner in Crime No.32 of 2023, for the offences punishable under Sections 326 and 506(2) IPC, and the petitioner was arrested on 08.02.2023 and remanded to judicial custody on the same day. The second respondent, by alleging that the petitioner violated/breached the bond executed by him, has sent a communication, requesting the first respondent to initiate necessary action under Section 122(1)(b) r/w 117 Cr.P.C. Based on the said report of the second respondent, the first respondent issued a show cause notice to the petitioner and directed them to produce the petitioner on 15.02.2023. The first respondent after enquiry, has passed the impugned order, dated 16.02.2023, cancelling the security bond executed by the petitioner and ordered to detain him in prison until the expiry of the period of bond viz., 16.10.2023. Aggrieved by the said order, the petitioner has preferred the present revision along with the present miscellaneous petition seeking suspension of sentence.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the impugned order has been passed without following the procedure laid down by this Court, that the first respondent has not conducted proper enquiry as prescribed in the law, that the petitioner's right to get legal assistance was denied, that no opportunity was given to the petitioner to get the documents, that the first respondent has failed to supply all the documents mentioned in the impugned order, that the learned Magistrate has no power to invoke Section 122(1)(b) r/w 117 Cr.P.C for the violation of the bond executed under Section 107 Cr.P.C and that the personal liberty of the petitioner was seriously affected by the impugned order passed by the first respondent.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondents would submit that the petitioner is the habitual offender and five criminal cases are pending against him as of now.

5. No doubt, the first respondent in the impugned order has listed out five cases pending against the petitioner on the file of Town East Police Station, Thanjavur and Taluk Police Station, Thanjavur.

6. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would further submit that the Division Bench of this Court has pronounced a judgment dated 13.03.2023 in Crl.R.C.(MD)No.137 of 2018 Batch, wherein, the Division Bench of this Court has specifically observed that an Executive Magistrate cannot authorize imprisonment under Section 122(1)(b) for violation of a bond under Section 107 Cr.P.C.

and further observed that a person who has violated the said bond executed before the Executive Magistrate under the said provision will have to be challaned or prosecuted before the Judicial Magistrate for enquiry and punishment under Section 122(1)(b) Cr.P.C.
